DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES AND APPLIED SCIENCES
STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME
A REPORT ON UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUE

An online session was conducted for newly admitted students at SLRTCE. The session was conducted as per the online schedule prescribed for SIP 2020-2021 during pandemic. Dr. Monika MDR Wagh took the sessions on the topic "Exploring Our Aspirations & Concerns" Part-I & II and "Basic Human Aspirations and its Fulfilment". Each session was of one hour and conducted on 27.02.2021 and 06.03.2021.

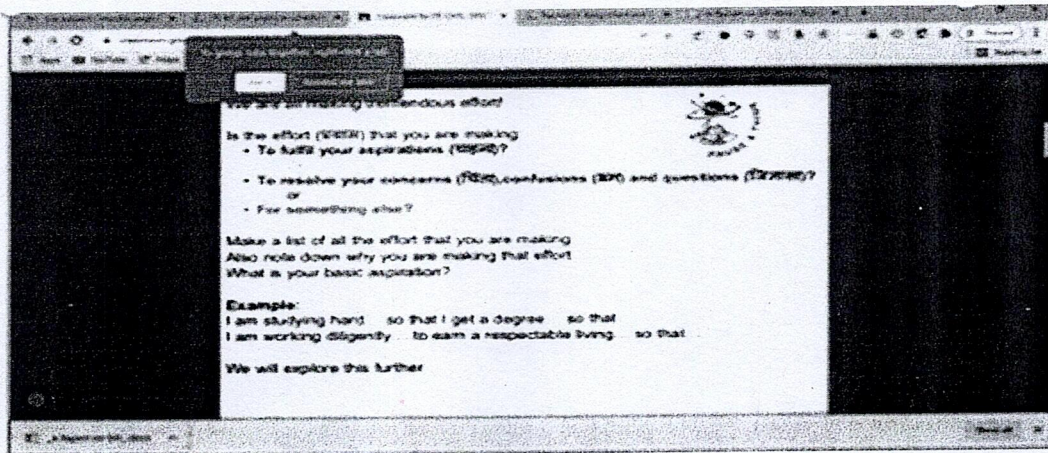

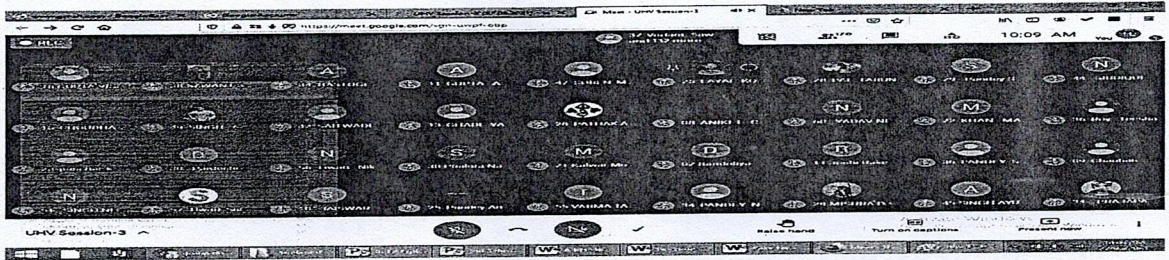

During the session discussion was held on the topics mentioned in schedule. Students shared their views on the topic and expressed their aspiration as a human being one by one. The session was so enlightening and related to the basic concepts of humanities in one's life. Our newcomers participated actively in the discussion and also shared their viewpoints and perspectives on how to live a harmonious and a balanced life after realizing the objectives of their life. They shared their aspirations and the efforts to achieve the basic goal of life.

They also understood the meaning of true happiness which certainly would help them to be a good human being and respect the emotions of other people. This surely could help them build and maintain harmonious relationships in family and at the workplace too.. They got a clear idea of linking happiness with prosperity. Along with material prosperity, how important is it to prosper in human relationships? A few minutes were given to them to introspect and discover the cause of their actual being on the planet. This self-contemplation helps them express their perspectives on life excellently. The session was indeed a great help for our new entrants to lead their lives in a meaningful way. Although the session was conducted in virtual mode, everyone enjoyed the session and showed their active participation in the discussion.
