Name of Activity: Blood Donation Camp

Date of activity: 7th September 2022

No. of Hours: 8 hours

Activity Area: SLRTCE Seminar Hall

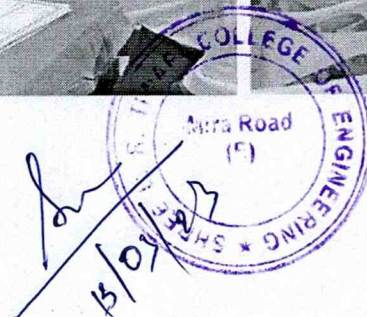

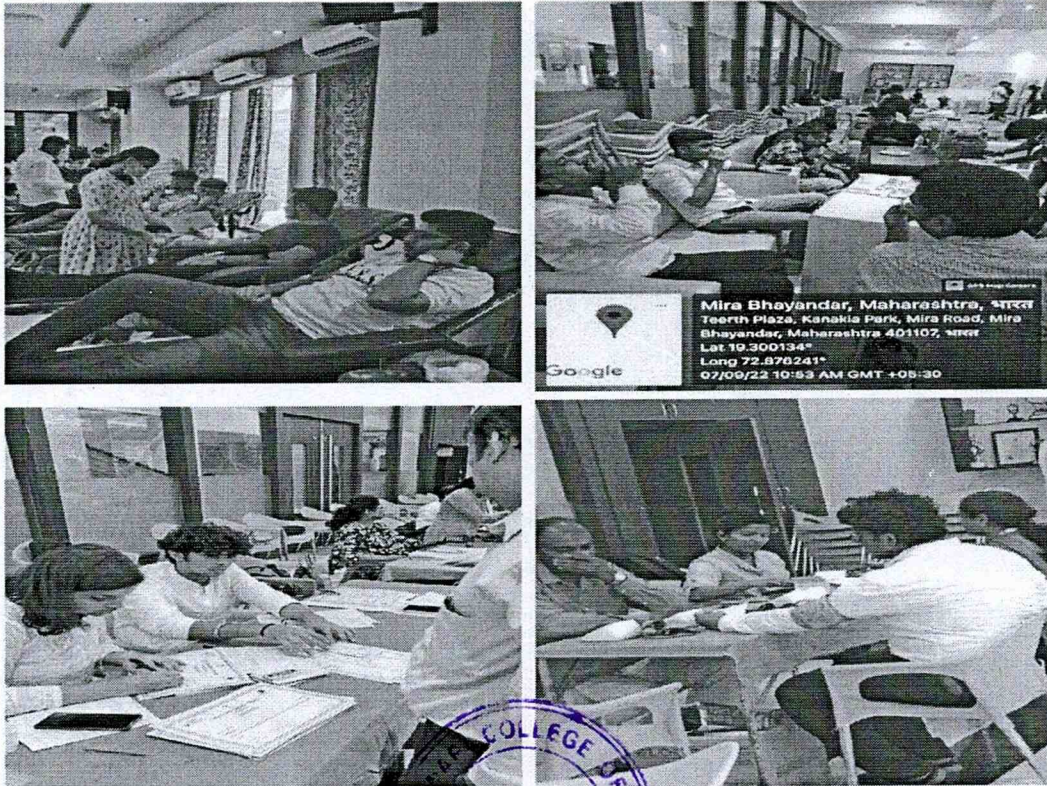

Description:

The NSS unit had organized a Blood Donation Camp, in collaboration with Nair Hospital and Lion Club.

All NSS volunteers gathered at the college campus by 8:15 to arrange the doctor table, beds and nursing table. By 9 am, everything was set for blood donation. Firstly, the weight of the donor was checked, then hemoglobin, then current illness. If the donor has no weakness or illness then he/she was permitted for blood donation. Approx. 350 ml of blood was collected from a particular donor. Blood was donated by college students, staff, People's from outside the college and also NSS volunteers. The camp was supervised by our NSS PO Prof. Menka Singh. After blood donation, the donors were provided with snacks to retain energy. Overall, 103 donors donated the blood with the collection of 36,050 ml of blood of different blood groups. Also our Volunteers have done PR in the campus and nearby areas by giving them visiting cards with a rose.

We believe "The Blood You Donate Gives Someone another Chance at Life."

Description:

The NSS Volunteers from our college had a very important role in managing the Traffic with police during Ganpati visarjan. The main aim of this activity was to prevent the artificial lakes from getting contaminated from waste materials, garlands, and plastic garbage. A group of volunteers were assigned the duty at the gates to make sure that no garlands or any other plastic wastes should go with Ganpati idol immersion that can cause water pollution. A few volunteers were alongside the road to help police in managing the crowd and to prevent unwanted chaos and to make sure there are 'No Parking' of any vehicles at certain places.
