A REPORT ON THE SEMINAR ON 'DARE TO BE DIFFERENT '

A one day seminar on Inspirational Speech was organized in SLRTCE with the Initiatives of the Department of Humanities & Applied Sciences on 28 Aug. 2019. The Seminar entitled “Dare to be Different” was comprised of well- knit motivational content along with interactive session involving the partaking of students. Mr. Robert Clements was the resource person of the programme. Mr. Robert Clements is an eminent Motivational speaker and Newspaper columnist (Khaleej Times, Dubai & The Morning Star, and London). He is endowed with the most vital and prevalent skills apt to the recent time . The objective of the programme to make first year students aware about the near-term challenges that they have to face in their life, at their work place etc. They must be competent enough to compete in this fast changing global world keeping themselves intact with their conduct and ethics. Every student should be well verse with communication skills and imbued with prescribed professional, and universal human ethics.

The programme was inaugurated by the principal of the college, Dr. S Ram Reddy with the felicitation of the resource person. Mrs. Karuna Bhole, (First Year Incharge), all the teachers and students of the department took active part in the programme. Mr. Clements in his motivational speech emphasized three major points, DIFFERENT, CHARACTER & GOAL. All these words, no doubt seem very common yet have different connotations. He articulated the word “DIFFERENT” by formulating different perspectives from each and every letter of the word. According to Mr. Clements, the first Letter “D”stands for Dreamer/Doer and he elaborated it to inspire the student to be a dreamer/ doer. He extended the idea and inspired the student to dream something noble and elite and also guided them to be consistent in their efforts to make their dream come true. Likewise, he articulated the letter I for Ignition, F for Funny, F for Free, E for Embraced not to be embarrassed ,R for Role Model not to be a rogue, E for encourage , N for natural not for nameless and T for truthfulness. He put forth two divergent views and ask students to analyse and choose the one which is the most appropriate and required to lead a successful, happy and contented life. He tried well to show the right path to the students that will lead them towards Ideal life. Likewise, he expressed his extraordinary craftsmanship to portray the idea of being centred/focused, harmonious, not to be addict be reached out, adapted, trusting, empathetic and reputed or self esteemed through the word “CHARACTER” A series of wonderful morals through the words like “go for it”, “Obey” “Advice” & “Love” he implied in word “GOAL”. To reveal the practicalities of these values to the students, he beautifully introduced anecdotes (small stories based on his personal experiences). Indeed, it was a wonderful session for the students and they enjoyed and loved it a lot. At the end of the lecture, he interacted with the students and answered their questions. No doubt, after the end of the session he motivated them to say ‘We will dare to be different’.
