Location: Seminar Hall of Shree LR Tiwari College Of Engineering

12th August 2025

The NSS unit of Shree L.R. Tiwari College of Engineering, in association with the Rajiv Gandhi Blood Bank, successfully organized a Blood Donation Camp on 12th August at the Seminar Hall from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. A proper waiting area was arranged, and all donors underwent necessary medical criteria checks before donation. The camp was supervised by trained medical staff to ensure safety and hygiene throughout the process. The event received an encouraging response, and by the end of the day, a total of 80 blood bags had been collected. Donors were presented with certificates of appreciation for their noble contribution. The camp proved to be a meaningful initiative, spreading awareness on the importance of voluntary blood donation and extending support to healthcare needs..

12th August 2025

The NSS unit of Shree L.R. Tiwari College of Engineering organized an AIDS Awareness Session under the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) on Tuesday, 12th August 2025 at the Seminar Hall. The session was conducted by Varsha Ma'am, who delivered an insightful and informative lecture on HIV/AIDS. The address focused on the causes, modes of transmission, preventive measures, and the importance of early diagnosis and treatment. Attention was also drawn to the social stigma surrounding HIV/AIDS, with an emphasis on the need to promote empathy, awareness, and responsible behavior within society. The program was highly engaging, with active student participation through questions and discussions, which enriched the overall learning experience. The session concluded on a positive note, equipping the participants with valuable knowledge and fostering a greater sense of social responsibility.

Date of the activity: 07 September 2025

Location: Juhu Beach

7th- September 2025

The NSS Unit successfully carried out the Beach Cleanup Activity at Juhu Beach on 7th September 2025. The drive focused on restoring cleanliness after the Ganesh Visarjan celebrations. Volunteers cleaned the shoreline by collecting and segregating waste that had accumulated on the beach. They also respectfully placed Ganpati idols and other religious items aside to preserve their sanctity. The cleanup covered all areas of the beach, ensuring thorough removal of debris. Volunteers worked in an organized manner to manage the collected waste efficiently. The activity helped restore the natural beauty of the beach. It promoted environmental responsibility and mindful disposal of waste. The beach was left in a cleaner and safer condition. Overall, the activity was completed successfully and had a positive impact on both the environment and the community.

15 October 2025

The NSS Unit successfully conducted an Environment Conservation Session on 15th October 2025 in the Seminar Hall. The session was led by a guest speaker who discussed the major issue of environmental pollution caused by plastic waste, particularly non-reusable plastic water bottles. He explained the harmful effects of plastic on the environment and emphasized the importance of adopting sustainable practices. The main focus of the session was to encourage the use of reusable water bottles made of steel, copper, or other eco-friendly materials to reduce plastic consumption. The speaker also highlighted initiatives such as installing water coolers at railway stations and other public places to support this practice. At the end of the session, volunteers asked questions and clarified their doubts regarding environmental conservation. The session concluded with photographs, leaving the participants informed and motivated to contribute positively to protecting the environment.

Description:

The NSS Unit of Shree L.R. Tiwari College of Engineering, in collaboration with Suryoday Trust, organized a meaningful Bamboo Rakhi Exhibition from 30th July to 1st August 2025. The exhibition featured eco-friendly Rakhis handcrafted by tribal artisans and students with intellectual disabilities supported by Suryoday Trust. To ensure smooth execution, NSS volunteers were assigned specific time slots to manage the event over the three days. The exhibition was actively promoted through posters, classroom announcements, and social media, which helped generate strong engagement within the campus. The initiative focused on promoting sustainability, supporting tribal communities, and encouraging inclusive growth. A total of 150 Rakhis were sold during the exhibition, marking the activity as a successful step toward celebrating Raksha Bandhan with purpose and social responsibility.
